

Emerick's Bio

Emerick Peace is the Operating Partner and owner of Keller Williams Preferred Properties (KWPP). KWPP is a multi-billion dollar residential, luxury and commercial real estate sales brokerage with more than 600 associates found in Upper Marlboro, Maryland. Keller Williams Preferred Properties is the undisputed #1 real estate brokerage in Prince George's County and one of the largest single office brokerages on the eastern coast.

Boasting a background in the real estate industry that stretches more than Thirty (30) years, with over one thousand nine hundred (1,900) successfully negotiated settlements from all aspects of the real estate industry. He is the owner of The Paragon Group, a twenty million dollar plus sales and marketing team. Emerick understands the value of communicating with and educating the public. "In order to make good decisions, people must be knowledgeable about the process and their options." Whether people are buying or selling, Emerick stays committed to always keeping the lines of communication open. His regional expertise and his strong customer service orientation allow people to receive the quality of service they want and deserve.

Emerick's work ethic and fundamental business principles can be attributed to his 21-year career in the U.S. Air Force and his mastery of his niche market. Emerick's past clients refer him to friends and relatives on a regular basis, which is why 60% of his business is referral and or repeat. His career highlights include Prince George's County Association of Realtors Hall of Fame, Keller Williams Realty Hall of Fame for Operating Partner and a host of sales, leadership, and community service awards. He has committed countless hours to volunteering and serving the residents of Prince George's County.

Pat's Bio

Under Patricia (Pat) Long's leadership, in June 2004, Keller Williams Preferred Properties (KWPP), opened its doors with twenty-eight (28) agents in Upper Marlboro, Maryland. As the broker/owner, Pat has grown the single office brokerage, to over 600+ agents. To date, the office has closed over $6 billion dollars in sales volume. KWPP ranks nationally in Real Trends 500 Rankings, Washington Journal, and the top 100 of 800+ Keller Williams Realty International (KWRI) brokerages worldwide.

Pat has 31 years of real estate experience, and is licensed in Maryland, DC, and VA. She began her career as a real estate agent in 1991. Pat has won numerous sales and leadership awards, including the PGCAR Distinguished Sales Club, and Keller Williams Realty International "Black Belt Recruiter". In February 2019, Pat was inducted into the prestigious Keller Williams Realty International Team Leader Hall of Fame.

Pat is a member of numerous national, state, and local real estate boards, and has served on many committees including chairing Prince George's County Association of Realtors (PGCAR) Legislative committee. Currently, Pat serves as the vice chairperson of Maryland Realtors Public Policy committee. Additionally, she is a long standing Board member of the Foundation of Applied Technology for Students (FACTS). FACTS is a non-profit organization made up of members of the business community who work directly with Prince George's County Public Schools to provide students with hands-on training for careers in the construction trades. The annual culmination of the program is a Student Built house. All proceeds of the sale are used for the continuance of the program.

Community Service is a cornerstone of Pat's business philosophy. Pat, and the KWPP associates have participated in many philanthropic activities, including building homes for Habitat for Humanity, helped to refurbish local homeless women shelters, provided over 90 college scholarships for local high school students, distributed over 30,000 dictionaries to local elementary school students, and regularly hosts free homeowner education and financial literacy classes. KWPP has transformed five elementary public school libraries in Prince George's County including Capital Heights Elementary, Seat Pleasant Elementary, District Heights., Barnaby Manor, and William Bean Elementary. KWPP associates have raised $125,000.00 towards the library project.