

As a Senior Relationship Manager – Pamela Scott has transitioned over forty years of banking experience into the role of a noteworthy leader in the M&T Family. Many know her as an energetic team member always ready and prepared to “close the deal.” Her energy and drive are infectious and is equally distributed in her work, community, and personal arenas.

From her start at the First Union bank in Washington, DC to Wells Fargo Bank, to her final landing place at M& T, she shares a wealth of unique banking experience. Her journey has ranged from encouraging continued development of industry knowledge among her peers, along with aligning her expert banking acumen to support local & small business growth to obtain their goals and aspirations. These endeavors have established a strong network of resources which have been instrumental in providing assets for both clients and partners- particularly the Prince George's County Economic Development Corporation.

Notably, Pam can be credited with consistent outcomes managing client accounts for the federally established SBA Paycheck Protection loan program - successfully working with clients for approval to support COVID Pandemic financial needs. In her role as Co-Chair, Women in Business | Greater Bowie Chamber – she has demonstrated a commitment to educating and promoting financial literacy to the community with the partnership of the FSC First | Prince George’s Financial Services Corporation.

Pam has been consistently recognized for her contributions to M&T via outstanding job performance accolades and the prestigious President Council Award. Furthermore, she is spirited in her efforts to serve the community by actively participating in various ministries at the First Baptist Church of Highland Park to include COVID Vaccination, Share (Food Insecurity) Ministry, and Usher Board. Additionally, she is affiliated with the Greenville, NC organization: You Belong – devoted to developing and establishing an environment that provides young mothers with an opportunity to grow as women and young mothers.

Pam’s irresistible vibrancy is also sprinkled throughout her personal life. Her husband, Michael and children – Jarrett & Jada and grandchildren, Aiyden, Savannah and Austiyn are showered with her love and support – all while Pam thrives as a Breast Cancer Survivor and Advocate for that community.
